04 Recruitment Process

Team and role

This global company is seeking to recruit a senior policy advisor for their global policy team. The senior manager engages with relevant energy market and policy stakeholders to support our business units (squares) with forward-looking policy assessments. You will be responsible for expanding policy engagement in key European markets.

Responsibilities

- Provide policy expertise that support our leaders in their commercial strategy work, their decision making, their market understanding and, ultimately, in their ability to spot and seize new market opportunities in markets where, in many cases, policy is the key driver.
- Inform market modelling, commercial decisions and strategies through your policy analysis.
- Expand policy intelligence capabilities and engage with key policy stakeholders in relevant European markets (policy-makers, NGOs, associations, initiatives and other industry stakeholders).
- Insert views into relevant policy discourses and drive though leadership in environmental commodities and energy markets.

Qualifications and requirements

- 7 + years work experience in PA/policy related roles for corporations, associations or in politics/administration;
- Relevant (renewable) energy market and fuels experience and ideally, a background in both liquid and electric energy carriers.
- Fluency in English, German are essential. French language skills also valuable.
- Very proactive networker (externally and internally) with the ability to work with high degree of independence.

Recruitment Process

The specialist executive search firm Dober Partners has been retained to draw up a shortlist of prospective candidates against the criteria set out in this document, and using their discretion and expertise to recruit a new senior advisor to join this global company with exciting projects and prospects for the future.
